New TR6, New Friendships, and Old Friends, Too

by Rod Smith, President

Southeastern British Motorcar Owners Club

The Southeastern British Car Club held their annual Great Scot! event, in Greenville, S.C. on Saturday with a large and very impressive group of British cars. No matter which route one took, back roads made for LCBs where deer, antelope or wild turkeys may roam, or multiple-laned highways where you have to keep up with the big boys, all roads led to the Great Scot! Event.

The cars that were registered were a very nice group without a single "diamond in the rough". Very impressive! We lined up our cars on the lush, sun-dappled grass of Furman University's Mall of Oaks that stood majestically above us, which provided much appreciated shade from what would be a record-breaking day of heat.

However, with the shade and a gentle breeze blowing from the mountains, the day was not just bearable, but quite comfortable.

A number of our members and people connected to our club were in attendance and lots of trophies were scooped up. But before I get to those details, I need to back up to February 6th when an email came into our club's website. A gentleman wrote: "I have a 1974 TR6 for sale. I am asking $8500, it has about 1500 miles on a rebuilt engine. I live in the Lexington/Gilbert, SC area".

Well. Surely the car still needs a lot of work at that price, so I asked him where it was listed for sale so I could share the information and pictures with our members. He replied that he had not listed it for sale and had only notified our club and the local British Car Club.

He emailed me the pictures and as I scrolled through what appeared to be a TR6 in excellent condition, I immediately thought of my friend Clyde Fowler in Greenville, SC. Clyde and I have been friends for many years and we came to know each other because his wife Debbie and my wife Myrna were best friends in high school. I knew Clyde previously owned three TR4s and a TR6 back in the 70s and 80s and was currently looking at a variety of cars and was having trouble deciding which way to go. So, in a flash I sent him and email: "Hey, not sure if you're interested, but I just learned of this car for sale. Motor has been rebuilt. No pressure, just FYI".

I soon learned that Clyde had spoken with the owner within minutes and was on his way to see the car. As luck would have it, the car had been completely restored. That's right. A body-off, frame-up, complete restoration. For $8500. Clyde said it ran pretty ragged, but being mechanically inclined, he figured he could sort it all out. There was just one problem: he felt like he was stealing candy from a child, so he looked the man in the eye and said: "How much did you say you want for the car?" Answer: $8500. Clyde says: "That's eight, five, zero, zero?" Answer: Yes. So he asks: "Are you sure you want to sell this car?" Answer: Yes. So he turns to the wife, thinking the man has Alzheimer's and asks her the same question and she tells him they have talked about it and this is what they want to do.

Needless to say, Clyde gives the man a check and off they go. Clyde soon finds out that the carbs are out of sync, the valves are out of adjustment, there are a variety of loose nuts and bolts, a vibration and a clunk in the rear end. All of those things were promptly fixed. The vibration was due to old motor mounts and the clunk was the lash being way out of normal bounds, but it was fixed by installing the spare rear end that came with the car. I drove it and it handles, shifts, stops and accelerates like a brand-new car.

As I said earlier, there were a few of us heading to the Great Scot! Event and I told Clyde that he should enter his car as well, which he did.

Greg and Patsy were there with their beautiful '79 MGB, Warren and Stancy Bender had their beautiful '61 Triumph TR3A and Clyde and Debbie Fowler had their new '74 Triumph TR6. As I stated earlier, there were no slouches at his show and we were all up against some tough competition.

At this event, they had Scottish competitive Games, kilted marching bands, a beer garden, vendors with Scottish fare and bling, Border Collies herding sheep and pipe and drum competitions, a Wee Scotland section for children and even hot dogs or brats with sauerkraut just for Warren. There were beauty queens, a trolley to move people from one area to another and a children's train, much to the delight of Greg and Patsy's grandchildren Rory and Griffin. One of the growing trends are electronic voting apps and theirs worked flawlessly. The great thing about the electronic voting is that once the individual hits 'submit', the choices are simultaneously tabulated and scored. Something for us to consider!

Warren captured 1st place, I was fortunate to walk away with 3rd, Greg grabbed another 1st prize and Clyde, with his new TR6 walked off the field with 2nd. It was a sweep! We also saw John Moore take first place for his TR4, Deb Larkin placed with their MGB and Dennis Bromley and Sue Beck won with their MGB. John Moore's daughter, Cathy Pittman, was also there in the MGB chrome bumper that John restored for her and took 2nd place.

Welcome to the Garage

Afterwards, the Hoch's, Bender's, and Myrna and I, were invited to Clyde and Debbie's beautiful home, situated on 4 acres on Paris Mountain, where we could see the city lights of Spartanburg and were welcomed and greeted by Duffy, their adorable black Scottie. A feast of smoked ribs, pulled pork, some delicious sides and an amazing strawberry shortcake was served alongside a few adult beverages as we discussed the day's events, the awards won and the new friendships made.

Those of you who haven't been to this show should definitely put it on your bucket list and to all of you, we hope to see you on our next adventure. You just never know who will help you by spotting a little train for barefooted grandchildren, hail it for you on its off-scheduled route, share chairs and special chips, re-enact a children's book written in Italian, or help you remember where you've hidden the emergency lollipops … and for all the old and new friendships made we are grateful!

GSBCC Meeting Minutes

Saturday, June 15, 2019

Larry Holloway and Jennifer

Zangara's house near Loris, SC

At approximately 12:53 p.m. President Rod Smith called the meeting of the Grand Strand British Car Club to order with 41 members and guests in attendance. He began by welcoming all members, thanking everyone for coming and asked for a big round of applause for our hosts, Jennifer Zangara and Larry Holloway. A vote was taken to waive the reading of the minutes of the May meeting, and they were approved as published in the GSBCC May Newsletter.

Membership Chair Skip Robertson reported that we have about 87 members, and warned that the number will soon decrease due to non-renewals.

Treasurer Jim Smith presented a gift from the club to our gracious hosts and reported that we are in good financial order. He will soon order club apparel, and he reminded us that money will be spent to support Britfest. He asked for color suggestions for 2019 Britfest t-shirts.

Vice President Greg Hoch thanked those who wore name tags today and mentioned that magnetic name tags are under consideration. He reported that hundreds of Save the Date Britfest cards have been distributed at recent car shows: Columbia, the Gathering, the Cape Fear, the Triangle, and the show at Furman over Memorial Day week end. He encouraged increased participation at all shows.

Rod reported that the Board of Directors reviewed and approved the work of the Bylaws Committee under the chairmanship of Bill Unger. The committee members worked hard to present streamlined by-laws for consideration as well as to recommend a separate Policy and Procedures Manual for membership review and vote. The suggestion to make club membership less complicated resulted in a motion that one membership shall consist of the applicant and spouse or significant other living at the same address. The membership shall have one single vote, but each party shall be eligible to run for an elected office. The motion was seconded and agreed upon by the members present. The by-laws with the membership revision were approved to be presented to the membership for final review and vote.

Britfest: Ray Maggio has done a phenomenal job on all the posters, and Rod presented the 30 limited editions for sale for $25 each. The first ten posters sold immediately.

- We are already receiving early registrations which is encouraged for all members to help plan our event. Early registration will ensure that there will be the proper classification for your car!
- We will have two large tents this year for shade and twice as many chairs.
- Deb and Joel Carnossa turned in their raffle basket.
- A meeting will soon be held to refine all Britfest plans.

Rod announced that the website has been successfully upgraded. He closed the meeting by thanking everyone for their invaluable input and, once again thanking Larry and Jennifer for hosting.

The next meeting will be a drive to an historic restaurant in Mullins, so stay tuned.

Respectfully Submitted, Patsy Hoch
